SUMMARY

I am currently a student at the University of Buea studying Computer Engineering at the Faculty of Engineering and Technology and aspiring to be a Front-end developer. I have expertise in project reporting and presentation.

I have dealt with programming languages such as C, C++ and Java. And equally, I can confidently say I have experience in HTML, CSS and Javascript and also an experience in ui/ux designing

EXPERIENCE

- Collaborated with a design team to create responsive and visually appealing user interfaces for web applications.
- Conducted cross-browser testing and ensured compatibility across different devices.
- Participated in code reviews and provided constructive feedback to peers.
- Worked closely with backend developers to integrate frontend components with server-side logic.
- Utilized version control (Git) for code management and collaborated with a distributed team.
- Built a responsive portfolio using React.

Technologies Used:

- HTML, CSS, JavaScript
- React.js,
- Git, GitHub
- Figma
